Update regarding Thousand Oaks Assistance Center Hours of Operation for Victims of Border Line Shooting Tragedy and Their Loved Ones

VENTURA, California – District Attorney Gregory D. Totten announced the Thousand Oaks Assistance Center is open and serving victims of the Border Line shooting tragedy and their loved ones. It will be open until 7:00 p.m. this evening. Weekend and Veterans' Day hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Following the holiday, regular business hours will be Monday through Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

The Thousand Oaks Assistance Center is located at 625 West Hillcrest Avenue, in Thousand Oaks. We appreciate the support of Ventura County Supervisor Linda Parks, the Governor's Office of Emergency Services, the California Victim Compensation Program, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, our partners at the Coalition for Family Harmony and Interface Children & Family Services, and colleagues from Kern, Orange, Los Angeles, San Bernardino and Santa Barbara Counties.

For additional information, call the Thousand Oaks Assistance Center at (805) 214-2503 or the District Attorney's Crime Victims' Assistance Program at (805) 654-3622. Information regarding services is available on the District Attorney's website: www.vcdistrictattorney.com/victims
