Update Regarding Thousand Oaks Assistance Center Hours of Operation for Victims of Borderline Shooting Tragedy and Their Loved Ones

VENTURA, California – District Attorney Gregory D. Totten announced today that the Thousand Oaks Assistance Center, opened for victims of the Borderline shooting tragedy and their loved ones, will operate as planned through Friday, November 16, 2018. However, after close of business on Friday at 7:00 p.m., services at this site will be limited.

Starting Monday, November 18, a victim advocate from the District Attorney's Crime Victims' Assistance Program will remain available at this location, 625 West Hillcrest Avenue, in Thousand Oaks, from Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. This advocate will provide direct services, coordinate property returns, and coordinate referrals to other service providers.

We again thank Supervisor Linda Parks and her staff for allowing us to remain onsite at her offices.

For additional information, victims may call an advocate at (805) 947-7981 or email us at VCDAOBorderline@ventura.org. Information regarding services is available on the District Attorney's website: www.vcdistrictattorney.com/victims
