Any Additional Victims and Witnesses to Wrongdoing by Los Angeles County Sheriff's Deputy Urged to Come Forward

VENTURA, California – The District Attorney's Office is again urging any witnesses or victims of crimes or misconduct committed by Los Angeles County Sheriff's Deputy Neil Kimball to speak with investigators. Due to Kimball's former assignment with the Sheriff's Special Victim's Bureau, investigators are concerned that others may have been victimized by Kimball. Witnesses and victims are encouraged to call either Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Sergeant William Morris at (562) 392-7079, or Ventura County District Attorney Investigator Brenda Lemos at (805) 477-1606.

###

The Ventura County District Attorney's Office is the public prosecutor for the county's 850,000 residents. The office employs approximately 280 employees including attorneys, investigators, victim advocates, and other professional support staff who strive to seek justice, ensure public safety, and protect the rights of crime victims.
