Dear Consumer:

Included with this letter is a complaint form for you to complete and return to this office. Please include copies of documents, contracts, correspondence, statements, and/or receipts, which are relevant to your complaint. Do not send original documents. You may also include witness statements that pertain to your complaint.

The goal of mediation is to successfully negotiate your dispute out of court. Mediators do not have the authority to force either party to settle the dispute, or to participate in the mediation. Participation is voluntary. Consumer Mediation services are provided in part, pursuant to the California Dispute Resolution Program Act of 1986. There is no fee for our service.

The Consumer Mediator assigned to your case will have no known actual or apparent conflict of interest with your dispute. The Mediator has the authority to terminate the mediation when appropriate and may encourage the disputants to seek qualified legal, financial or other professional advice.

Mediation is conducted by telephone and correspondence. In most cases, you will not be compelled to come in to this office to mediate face to face with the other party. However, if it is in the best interest of all parties to have a meeting, arrangements can be made during normal business hours. If a meeting is arranged, you may elect to have an attorney accompany you.

Additionally, disputants may choose to have an attorney assist in the preparation of the complaint or response, restrict statements and/or documents, or make written agreements enforceable or admissible at law.

Consumer Mediators do not investigate businesses or individuals. However, we will review each complaint for violation(s) of California consumer protection laws.

Should you have any questions or need additional information, please feel free to contact our office. Our hours are 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Telephone (805) 654-3110; Fax (805) 648-9255. Our Internet address is <http://www.vcdistrictattorney.com>.
