

ERIK NASARENKO
VENTURA COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY
NEWS RELEASE

Follow us @VenturaCountyDA
DA.VenturaCounty.gov

Contact: Joey Buttitta
Title: Communications Manager/PIO
Phone: (805) 767-3400
Email: Joey.Buttitta@venturacounty.gov

Approved: SW
Date: March 26, 2026
Release No.: 26-034

Oxnard Man Sentenced to State Prison for Domestic Violence, High-Speed Chase, and Vehicle Theft

VENTURA, Calif. – District Attorney Erik Nasarenko announced today that Jordan Corrales (DOB 12/29/01), of Oxnard, was sentenced on March 25, 2026, to seven years and four months in state prison after being convicted by a jury in two separate cases involving vehicle theft, domestic violence, and a high-speed pursuit.

In the first case, prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Stephanie Horlick, a member of the Ventura County District Attorney's Office Major Crimes Gang Unit, Corrales was convicted on February 26, 2026, of vehicle theft-related charges stemming from an incident on October 23, 2024. The victim reported her 2018 Mercedes-Benz stolen from her Oxnard residence.

Surveillance footage showed two individuals entering the vehicle, one of whom appeared to be wearing a GPS ankle monitor.

The following day, the vehicle was located abandoned at an intersection with significant collision damage.

Investigators later determined Corrales was on parole and subject to GPS monitoring at the time of the theft. His GPS data placed him at the scene when the vehicle was stolen, and the vehicle was recovered approximately 200 yards from his residence.

"We are pleased that the jury reached a swift and decisive verdict," Ms. Horlick said. "It reflects the strength of the evidence and the seriousness of the offense. The sentence imposed sends a clear message that these crimes will not be treated lightly. In this case, upper term was appropriate given the facts and the defendant's criminal history, to ensure accountability and protect the community."

In a separate case, prosecuted by Senior Deputy District Attorney Rikole Kelly, Corrales was convicted by a jury on December 16, 2025, of felony evading an officer with willful disregard, along with misdemeanor counts of vandalism, battery, and resisting a peace officer.

During the early morning hours of December 16, 2024, Corrales forcibly entered the Oxnard residence where his former girlfriend was staying by breaking down the front door. Once inside, he confronted the victim and her blind aunt. When the aunt attempted to protect her niece, Corrales shoved her aside before fleeing the residence upon hearing approaching sirens.

Later that morning, Corrales was located by parole agents and Ventura County Sheriff's deputies and led deputies on a dangerous pursuit spanning approximately 15 miles. During the chase, Corrales drove at speeds exceeding 100 miles per hour, swerved around other vehicles, drove into oncoming traffic, and ran multiple stop signs and red lights. He eventually abandoned the vehicle and fled on foot, ignoring repeated commands to stop. Corrales was ultimately located hiding in a backyard between a shed and a brick wall.

At the time of both offenses, Corrales was on parole and wearing a GPS ankle monitor, which confirmed his movements.

Defendant Information:

Jordan Corrales (DOB 12/29/01)
Oxnard

Case: 2024032204

Charges convicted of:

- VC 10851(a) – Unlawful driving or taking of a vehicle

Special allegations:

- PC 667S2 – Prior strike 2
- PC 1170(h)(3) – Prior serious or violent felony

Case: 2024033064

Charges convicted of:

- VC 2800.2(a) – Evading an officer, willful disregard
- PC 594(b)(2)(A) – Vandalism not exceeding $400
- PC 242 – Battery
- PC 148(a)(1) – Resist, obstruct, delay of peace officer

Special allegations:

- CRC 4.421(b)(3) – The defendant has served a prior term in prison
- CRC 4.421(b)(4) – The defendant was on probation when the crime was committed
- PC 667S2 – Prior Strike 2
- PC 1170(h)(3) – Prior serious or violent felony, prison eligibility

