Oxnard Man Sentenced for Domestic Violence Assault on Girlfriend

VENTURA, Calif. – Ventura County District Attorney Erik Nasarenko announced today that Armando Liborio De La Mora (DOB 10/11/93), of Oxnard, was sentenced on August 25, 2026, to 365 days in Ventura County Jail and domestic violence probation after pleading guilty to five domestic violence charges. De La Mora previously pled guilty on June 18, 2026, to two felony counts of inflicting corporal injury on a girlfriend, one felony count of false imprisonment by violence, and misdemeanor counts of disobeying a domestic relations court order and violating a protective order. De La Mora also admitted to three aggravating circumstances for each of the felony counts, including the crime involved great violence, the victim was particularly vulnerable, and De La Mora engaged in violent conduct that indicates a serious danger to society.

Deputy District Attorney Hyla Schneir, a member of the Ventura County District Attorney's Office Domestic Violence Unit, prosecuted the case.

"This was a serious and traumatic attack that will have a lasting effect on the victim," Ms. Schneir said. "She showed tremendous courage throughout this process, and we will continue to advocate for the safety and protection of domestic violence victims."

On May 19, 2025, De La Mora and the victim were at his residence. During an argument, De La Mora blocked her from leaving and repeatedly slapped her before throwing a full, 40-ounce metal water bottle at her back. The victim called police, but she feared possible retaliation and did not speak to responding officers. After she returned inside, De La Mora confronted her about calling 9-1-1, threatened to kill her, and slid a kitchen knife blade under the bathroom door while she hid inside.

When the victim attempted to leave, De La Mora took her phone, threw her to the ground, and repeatedly struck, punched, and kicked her. She ultimately escaped through a back door and called a relative. Oxnard Police Department officers responded, and De La Mora was taken into custody. The victim was treated at the hospital for her injuries.

While in custody, De La Mora attempted to contact the victim. After bailing out of jail, he later approached the victim at a Ventura bar despite the existence of a restraining order.
