Agoura Hills Man Charged with Murder at Camarillo Costco

VENTURA, Calif. – Ventura County District Attorney Erik Nasarenko announced today that Abba Avrohom Bryski (DOB 04/28/91) has been charged with murder in connection with the death of Nicholas Lang on October 20, 2026. It is further alleged that Bryski personally used a deadly weapon to commit the murder. He is also charged with resisting, delaying, or obstructing a peace officer.

On the evening of October 20, 2026, around 8:30 p.m., Bryski is accused of driving his Infiniti Q60 coupe at Nicholas Lang and intentionally hitting him. Lang was in the process of painting stripes on the pavement of the Costco parking lot in Camarillo when Bryski allegedly struck him. Lang was transported to the Ventura County Medical Center but succumbed to his injuries.

“This is a devastating and senseless loss of life. The victim was at work, painting lines on a new parking lot, when his life was tragically cut short by an individual whose alleged actions demonstrated a shocking disregard for human life,” said District Attorney Erik Nasarenko. “We are committed to holding the defendant accountable and pursuing justice for the victim and his loved ones.”

Senior Deputy District Attorney David Russell, a member of the Ventura County District Attorney’s Office Homicide Unit, is prosecuting the case.

Bryski appeared in court today and continued his arraignment to November 18, 2026, at 1:30 p.m. in courtroom 13 of the Ventura County Superior Court. He remains in custody without bail.
